

YOUNG-OAK KIM

Young-Oak Kim (1919 – December 29, 2005) was a Korean-American officer in the United States Army, awarded 19 medals during World War II and the Korean War. Kim also founded several humanitarian organizations and was posthumously awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom by President Barak Obama.

