

The iftar, is the sunset meal during Ramadan which begins by eating three dates to commemorate the way Muhammad broke his fast. This is followed by prayers and the main meal which may consist of salads, appetizers, stewed lamb, lamb kebabs with grilled vegetables, roasted chicken and rice pilaf.