

Unexpected Change

Crayola Crew Creative Thinking Sheet

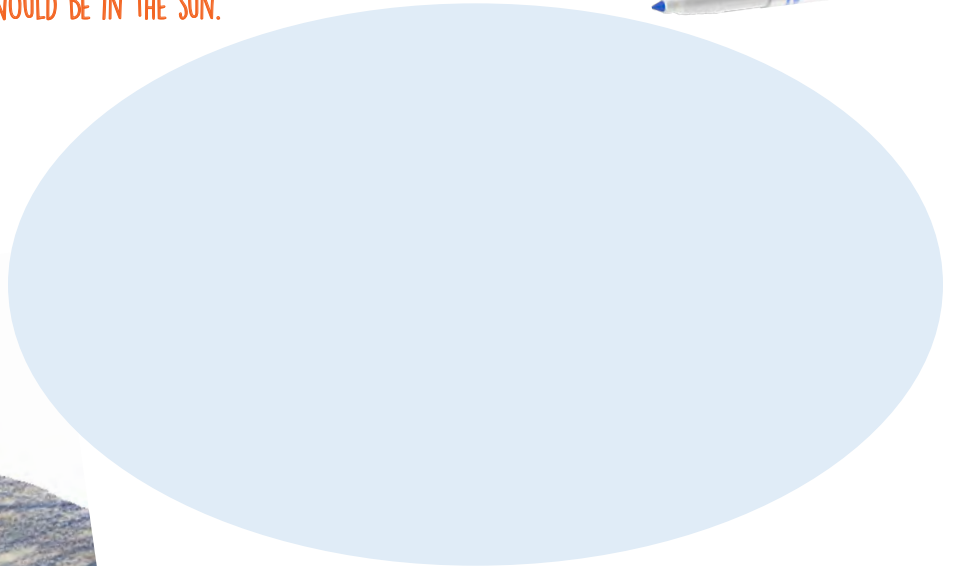

RESPOND to the video in which the Crayola Crew realizes a rainy day doesn't have to ruin playground fun. Adding imagination to unexpected changes can result in extra fun!

CREATE an innovative playground experience that works in either dry, sunny weather or when it is wet and raining. In the video their traditional slide became a waterslide. What else can be adapted for all-weather use? Imagine if a sandbox became a beautiful beach or a bike became a sailboat. Add a heavy dose of imagination to your art—it doesn't have to be realistic.

COULD BE AS MUCH
FUN IN THE RAIN AS IT
WOULD BE IN THE SUN.

RAINY DAY PLAY

FUN IN THE SUN

CONNECT the ideas of flexibility and optimism with this double fun activity. Why is it important to embrace unexpected changes and make the best of any situation?

PRESENT your sketches and share your thoughts on why it is important to see the bright side of any situation, even on a dark and cloudy day. How can imagination help people adapt to changes in plans?
